

YOUR GRACE IS A FLAME ETERNAL

Music by Steve Perkins/Lyrics and vocals By Eric Streicher 2018

V1,

Father when I hear your calling When I'm on my knees alone
Though the world is full of darkness In your son I have a home
Through the ages you have called us To a purpose set in stone
And though I know that I'm not worthy to see the light of heavens throne...
I am never alone...

Ch1,

Your grace is a flame eternal, A shelter in times of storm
Your Lamb is the only worthy sacrifice for the debt I owe.
Still I hear you calling Though I'm clothed in sin
Storm clouds all about me and you call me in.

V2,

Father when I hear you calling, I can never count the cost
Of the blood of precious Jesus, As he hung upon the cross
And his sacrifice and glory, For his conquering of death
I can only tell his story because he gives my every breath
Lord you know me best!

Ch2,

Your grace is a flame eternal, A shelter in times of storm. Your Lamb is the only worthy sacrifice for the debt I owe.
Still I hear you calling Though I'm clothed in sin, Storm clouds all about me you call me in.

(Repeat)
